11:00 am

The Unitarian Church of Vancouver

We are a community of diverse beliefs and shared values.

In fellowship with one another, we seek spiritual growth, social justice, and environmental sustainability through worship, ethical action, education, and artistic expression.

We welcome all who would join this compassionate and visionary community.

UNITARIAN CHURCH OF VANCOUVER

Celebration of Worship July 1, 2010

At the front of the church you will find unlit candles. You are welcome to light a candle in remembrance, in gratitude, in prayer, in celebration. Our church welcomes your comments and suggestions. Please find slips beside a suggestion box in the foyer. Thank you.

*Help us create a mood for shared celebration
Please turn off your pagers, cell phones, etc.*

Here On the Paths of Every Day

Benediction/Extinguishing the Chalice Flame

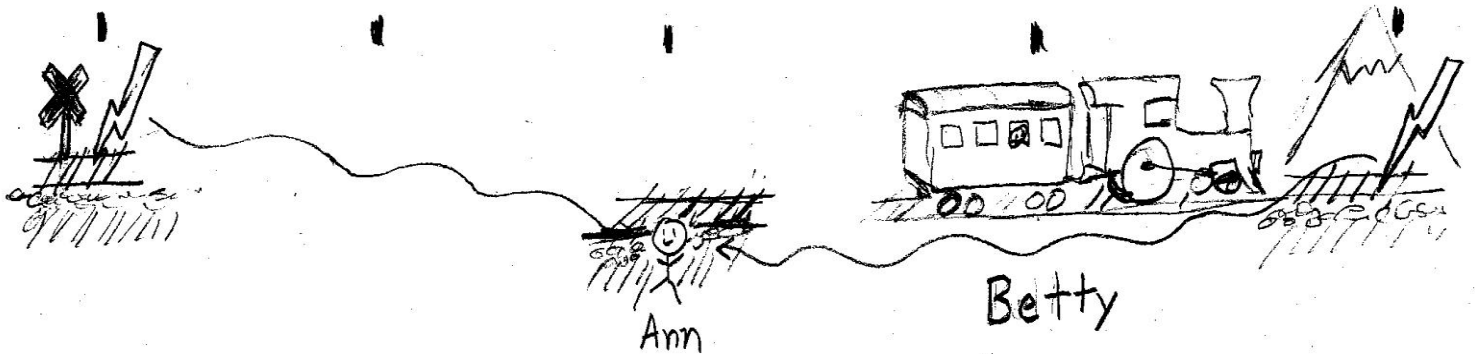

Valediction *Carry the flame of peace and love, until we meet again.
Carry the flame of peace and love, until we meet again.*

Postlude

*Playing the violin was another of Einstein's talents and he especially enjoyed improvising on Gypsy melodies. Our grateful thanks go to Jack Davidson, our violinist today. Jack has recently immigrated from England where he is well known.

Dr. Timothy Piwonka-Corle received a B.A. in Physics, Magna cum Laude from the University of Colorado, a Ph.D. in Applied Physics from Stanford and an M.B.A. from the Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Paris (ESCP Europe). He has held a number of positions that involved bringing science and science education to the public, including a brief stint teaching at Stanford University and responsibility for the commercialization of technology at Oregon Health & Sciences University in Portland, Oregon.

For those who may be interested in obtaining advanced draft copies of Dr. Piwonka-Corle's new book, electronic versions (in pdf format) are available by contacting the author at tpc@teleport.com. Hard copies are also available for a fee to cover the cost of color reproduction and can be ordered in advance either after the service or by emailing the author.

The seats in the fourth row on the left side of the church are reserved for people with hearing loss. People using hearing aids may obtain further amplification by activating the T-switch. The seats in the rear of the church are reserved: left side for parents with babies or small children in child care, and right side for persons in wheelchairs.

WELCOME! NEWCOMERS AND VISITORS

A Warm Welcome!

If you are a new family visiting with children or babies, we look forward to welcoming you in person. Free childcare is available for children 3 and under, and children over 3 are invited to check out our dynamic Sunday school programs. Children are also welcome to stay for the church service if they prefer. If you feel that you need to slip out of the service with a crying baby, please feel free to rejoin the service at any time. The service can also be heard in the foyer and in Hewett Centre.

Please visit our Visitors' table, sign in and get a name tag in the Sanctuary Foyer. Drop by the Welcome Table in Hewett Centre after the service, and stay for coffee, tea or juice and friendly conversation. Learn about our church and our community. Look for people wearing yellow name tags, who are welcoming you today.
